LIVELY RACE FOR ALL CONT ESTANTS-TO COME OUT AHEAD YOU SHOULD ENTER NOW-DELAYS ARE AL-WAYS DANGEROUS

Just as in the days of Caesar, when all roads led to Rome, now all seem to lead to The Anderson Daily Intelligencer voting contest. That is the message that is being sent these days by the candidates for prizes to all their friends.

In this season when nominations are coming into the Contest Department in a daily increasing number some of the enterprising competitors to be the most successful affair of its kind ever conducted in Western South Carolina.

"Vote for me" in The Anderson Prize a Touring Car to be awarded in the entire field of the contest it is really no small wonder that the contest spirit is lively, even at this early date. On the other hand, it is a mighty good thing to get an early start in competition of this kind. Preliminary work that can be done by candidates is unlimited and will doubtless save them a good deal of harder work later. By letting every barder work later. By letting every one of their acquaintances know in advance what they want, by securing pledges of support from every one they know and by laying plans for an effective system of vote getting, they can be ready to go right ahead when the real test comes to deliver the votes.

The contest will remain open for who clip out the nomination blank today and send it to the Contest De-partment today will have a good start over the late nomine s.

You may nominate yourself or you may nominate a friend or relative whom you would like to compliment in that way and whom you would like to see win a Touring Car absolutely
